St. Helen's donates $12,000 to charities

St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church recently awarded four grants totaling $12,000 from the church's 25th anniversary fund for the needy. The money for the fund is a percentage of each Sunday's collection during the anniversary year. The goal for the fund is $25,000.

Youth and Family Counseling Service, Westfield, received a $1,000 grant. It is a non-denominational organization serving eight towns including Westfield. In addition to the grant, St. Helen's Church donates its premises to Youth and Family Counseling Service for its annual spring concert.

The Greater Plainfield Area

Chapter of Habitat for Humanity was awarded $3,000 to continue its mission to build affordable houses for residents of Plainfield who are in need of decent housing, but who, though employed, cannot obtain conventional mortgages.

St. Joseph's Home, The York Street Project in Jersey City received $4,000. The York Street Project is a coalition of programs that helps economically disadvantaged women and their children achieve independent living.

St. Columba Family Life Center in Newark was given $4,000. Members work with families to decrease child abuse and provide family therapy and counseling services.

The balance of the grants will be distributed later this year.

St. Helen's Pastor Monsignor James A. Burke offers a donation to Lesley Miller of Youth and Family Counseling as Helen Guidice looks on.

Philadelphia show is topic for garden club

The Magic Box-Ten Niches from the Philadelphia Flower Show will be the topic for the regular meeting of the Garden Club of Westfield at 1 p.m. Tuesday, April 13, in the Woman's Club. Sally Humphries and Carolyn Waite will explore the philosophy of competition, emphasizing what the flower show judge looks for in an evaluation.

Hostess chairwoman Nita McHugh will be assisted by Norma Depnen, Joanne Sullberger, Susan Jardine and Ruth Metz.

The Myra J. Brooks Joint Workshop will convene at the Mountaineer Library at 8:30 a.m. April 27. Westfield Garden Club members Joanne Glass and Ruth Paul will discuss the mechanics of flower arranging.

Flowers for the Westfield Memorial Library for April will be provided by Joan Walsh, Norma Depnen, Ottilie Griesemer, and Corrie Muirhead.

Eye Openers

DIABETES AND YOUR EYES

Because diabetes may affect vision, it's extremely important for diabetics to take care of their eyes. A complete eye examination at least once a year is advised. The optometrist will look for an obstruction that could be related to the disease, including a cataract, degeneration of the retina, the back of the eye, which may be at risk. The eye doctor also will test for changes that may not have any noticeable visual symptoms.

Certain changes, such as blurring, double vision, floating spots, a sudden change in clarity, usually coming from the side of the eye, or any pain or pressure - often indicate trouble and should bring the diabetic to the optometrist immediately, even if it is not time for the usual checkup.

A diabetic's blood pressure should be checked frequently, too. High blood pressure and diabetes are a bad combination for eye health and good vision.
